SHOWRUNNER: JUAN CARLOS RINCON
ESCRITO POR: IDANIA VELASQUEZ
DIRECTOR: CARLOS COCK

Es la historia de seis jóvenes universitarios: JUAN PABLO, LUCÍA, SIMÓN, DIEGO, VALERIA, quienes, por infortunios del destino, terminan involucrados en un grave accidente que te quita la vida a uno de sus compañeros.

La ZOOCIEDAD los va acorralando y los lleva al límite de convertirlos en cómplices y asesinos de MARTÍN(A), un hacker transgénero que descubre los secretos más oscuros de cada uno de ellos y que tiene el poder de revelarlos.

En esta historia veremos la lucha social, la corrupción, la violencia y disparidad que viven hoy en día nuestros jóvenes en Latinoamérica.

BARRY LANGER

FROM "BIG LITTLE LIES", "GOLIATH",
"DUCK DYNASTY", "WILL & GRACE"

The life of a prominent lawyer is completely turned upside-down when she meets free-spirited dreamy musician. Nothing in common but Murphy's law of love that conquer hearts and out-of-box project "The Emotional Prenup". This story carries an original message suggesting that when couples choose to cohabit or marry they do an "Emotional Prenup" to spell out what the expectations are but as importantly how they will treat each other, their children, grandchildren, friends in the event that the union does not work.

NATIVE NATION

BAYARDO CHÁVEZ

Our goal is to reconstruct that identity and recreate the links that existed between all these people. With this premise it was possible to demonstrate a similarity between the original peoples from the arrival of Columbus in 1492 to the Bahamas until today; the expulsion of their original lands and the beginning of an unprecedented migration movement that continues on even today.
